January, 2011

Where does the time go???? The New Year is already here with lots of exiting plans on the way. Just celebrating Yarmouth's 250th birthday this year is exciting!!!

Remember at Rudder's there's live music three times a week with some new entertainment that's joining our team. If you go on the website and click on "Up-coming Events & Features", you'll find all the up-coming entertainment that plays Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Don't forget about Trivia Wednesday's night starting at 8:30 pm.

As Christmas and New Year has past by, just a reminder that Valentine's Day is around the corner.

Rudder's will be celebrating Valentine's Day February 12th, 13th & 14th with entertainment by Bill LeBlanc on Saturday February 12th. Reservations are already coming in.

On January 29th from 6pm to 9pm Rudder's will be hosting a Ladies Showcase Night. There's a great variety of venue like Lia Sophia, Epicure, Gold Canon, Tupperware, Arbonne, Melaleuca and many more.

Ladies come enjoy a great night of fun with great special!!!!

Thinking Outside the Bottle

A Brewer's Blog

From 2010 into 2011

Mike Ferguson

As the sun sets on 2010, I can look back and reflect on what was (to me) a good year, not without its issues and set backs, but still a good year. The end of 2010 leads us to the horizon of a brand new year. What will it bring, we will have to wait and see.

From what I see and hear, 2011 has all the makings of another full year, what with all of our regular planned water-front activities and of course there will be the added excitement of Yarmouth's 250th year anniversary celebrations. I think that we have a lot to look forward to.

From the Brewery's perspective I see beer in your future. I am hoping to be able to present you with a couple of new beers this year and also keep up with the high demand for our signature and seasonal brews. So drop by and see what's brewing.
