Brewery Tours

Our Brewery, as described in our tag line, is unique not only to the South Shore of Nova Scotia but also to many of the new brewpubs that are popping up around the land. This uniqueness comes from the design of our brewery as a gravity flow brewery. The gravity flow part comes from utilizing all three floors of the building. (betcha didn't know that we have three floors).

This and other interesting facts are revealed during the brewery tour. If you are interested in a tour just ask your server to see the brewery. We will show you around and explain the process.

Please call ahead if you are a larger group. We will be happy to accommodate you.

~Mike Ferguson

Fun Fact – A barrel of beer contains 31 US gallons. What we commonly refer to as a keg is actually 15.5 gallons or a half-barrel.
